Current KMoAS Office Projects:

- We are piloting the use of a shorter, 1-2 page judging form and have removed the judges' guidance to a separate document.
- We continue to have discussions about improving experiences for artisans and judges. These discussions are round-tables at arts-focused events.
- We are in the throes of planning/logistics of the Kingdom A&S competition in 2016. We are trying some new ideas at this event: a clear "welcome, judges" and "welcome, artisans" e-mail and putting divisions in separate rooms.
- I have re-aligned my deputies away from a region-basis and to a project-basis, to provide them with meaningful projects to work on.
- We are working to compile a master list of judges (for the competition) and teachers (for the collegium), so future planning and logistics should go easier.

Future KMoAS Office Projects:

- We continue to have discussions about improving experiences for artisans and judges. These discussions are round-tables at arts-focused events.
- Event planning for Kingdom A&S Collegium will begin in May 2016; the collegium will be held in April 2017.

Kingdom A&S Competition – Status Update:

- Due to a change in Kingdom Law, the Kingdom A&S Competition is held on the second weekend of April in even years. The College of St. Goliath will be hosting the next Kingdom A&S Competition, in April 2016.
- Reminders on various media have been sent out; artisans and judges continue to submit registrations and I am working on pairing artisans with judges.
- The deputy responsible for logistics and coordination with the event steward is THLady Isabella di Francesco Ambrosini.

Kingdom A&S Collegium – Status Update:

- Due to a change in Kingdom Law, the Kingdom A&S Collegium has been established and is held on the second weekend of April in odd years. 2017 will see our second Kingdom-wide collegium in many years, although the Northern and Southern halves of the Kingdom have put on successful A&S collegia.
- The deputy responsible for logistics and coordination with the event steward is THLady Isabella di Francesco Ambrosini.

A&S Activities of Note (events, displays, competitions, etc.):

- To get artisans more comfortable with displaying at smaller events and to prepare them, incrementally, for larger A&S competitions and Kingdom A&S and interkingdom Wars, local groups are encouraged to support artisans' displays and local competitions. The deputy responsible for these is Baroness Katherina von Lehmann.
