10. The five entries with the top overall scores (not including the champion) will be announced via e-mail and in the Kingdom newsletter.
11. A winner will be announced for each division unless there is only one entry in that division. The highest point score will determine the winner of that division. These winners will be announced via e-mail and in the Kingdom newsletter. They may also be announced at court, depending on the available time schedule. The final decision will reside with the Kingdom Arts & Sciences Minister. No prizes are awarded for division winners.
12. Champion rules:
 - Each entrant wishing to compete for overall A&S Champion is required to enter two items. Each item must be in a different category.
 - Overall scores will be tallied and the three Champion entrants with the highest overall averages will be reinterviewed on Sunday by a new panel of judges to decide the overall Champion. In the event of a tie in the averages, the entrant with the highest single score of the two will move on to the second round.
 - If Champion requirements are NOT met, alternate Champion requirements will be determined by the Crown or the Kingdom A&S Minister, i.e., the highest single score.
13. Entrants will receive a copy of their rubric sheets by email after the competition.
14. All work on a submission must be finished prior to judging.
15. If the entry is a group effort, this must be clearly noted in the documentation.
16. Items manufactured from kits are not eligible for entry; templates, though, may be used.
17. The Kingdom Minister of Arts & Sciences and designated representatives reserve the right to combine any categories not receiving enough entries into a miscellaneous class.
18. The Kingdom Minister of Arts & Sciences and designated representatives reserve the right to make exceptions to the above rules on a case-by-case basis.
